

Dear Claire,

Morning
Mar. 13th. 76

I forgot to say
in your letter last night, that not one word about Larry must be spoken - to Harold or any body. Am too shaky to write this morning - A loving

good morning from your Grace, as it is time to go for
my beam.

Lunch
Yours of Tuesday night
just received (am so sorry my slip of the pen to W. H. L.

should have been
the means of your
being taught (Claire),
but on the whole, I guess
it is good for you,
so I am not going to
feel bad over it.

Letters from everybody
this morning - I shall be home before the middle of April as we can finish the grad. program together.

Your loving Grace
